An astrological study of past presidential elections

This study is based on an article on Lee Lehman's site: Atlanta Group: Predicting Future Presidential Elections from Past Ones.

One of the Atlanta Group participants, Penny Shelton, chose Profections as a means of analyzing candidate charts, the following relies on the same study criteria but uses Placidus vs Regiomontanus houses and Equal House profections vs Regiomontanus House profections.

The original study covered 16 elections from 1864 until 2000; I've extended the study to 2024.

Study Criteria (from the original article)

"We have restricted this study to presidents and candidates whose data meets the Rodden AA-B criteria. These strictures result in a total of sixteen elections which we can study..."

"Penny picked profections. Profections are a classical technique in which the Ascendant is moved one house for each year of life. Accordingly: the 1 House gives the first year of life, the 2 House the 2 (age one), etc. A chart may be drawn with the profected Ascendant as the 1 House cusp, and the twelve houses interpreted accordingly. Because of the importance of angularity,"

"Penny looked at the Profected 1st and its respective Natal House, the Profected 10th and its respective Natal House, and the Profected Election (based upon November date) from the Profected 1st. House. Then we will look for any combinations which repeat with emphasis on the natal 10th."

Chart Page Layout and Abbreviations

The Election pages display the candidates radix and profected charts. An asterick (*) denotes the winning candidate.

In the profected chart, the Profected 1st (P1) and its ruler are circled in green.

The Profected 10th (P10) and its ruler are circled in red.

The house corresponding to the election period (PE) and its ruler are circled in orange.

A coloured dot beside a house or planet indicates the element is a repeat of one triggered at another level.

The profected and radix house correspondences are indicated below the radix chart, where an 'Nn' references the radix (natal) house.

 ♄ Δ P1, ♂ N10
 ♃ in P1 □ P10; ♀ N10, □ N1

♂ in P10 appeared not to harm him; possibly because Romney had no aspects involving P10 or N10.

Initial Conclusions

Election November 5, 2024: Biden vs Trump

Initial Conclusions

- Hard aspects from the planets managing the times, especially those involving P10 and N10, appear to win out over soft aspects
- A burnt ☿ as one of planets managing the times appears to ensure a loss
- The ♃ conjunct one of the planets managing the times greatly weakens the chances of a win; especially if it is conjunct the planet ruling P10

Election November 5, 2024: Joe Biden

Looks like the winner (assuming both are candidates on election day). If not, ♃ in P10 could ruin things for him, depending on the strength of his opponents chart. As well, on November 5, the ♃ by OA directions, will also be conjunct his radix ♂ which rules his protected 10th. On January 6, 2020 the directed ♃ was conjunct his radix Asc and things did not go well for him.
